

Changes in Industrial Hygiene Attitudes

2005 TVS-AIHA Fall Conference

October 12-14, 2005

Fox Den Country Club, Knoxville, Tennessee

Professional Development Course, Wednesday, October 12 1 CM Point*

Practical Local Exhaust Ventilation Maintenance

Instructed by Gary Q. Johnson, P.E.

The Health & Environmental Safety Alliance, Inc., Cincinnati, OH

gqjohnson2001@yahoo.com

Fall Conference, Thursday, October 13 1 CM Point*

Bridging the Gap Between Industrial Hygiene and Engineering – Gary Q. Johnson, P.E., The Health & Environmental Safety Alliance, Inc. gqjohnson2001@yahoo.com

Biological Monitoring – Carol Boraiko, Arkema Group carol.boraiko@arkemagroup.com

A Comparison of NIOSH 7600 and OSHA ID-215 Using a Single Extraction Method for the Analysis of Hexavalent Chromium - Fred Posey, Galson Laboratories FTPMKP@aol.com

Nanotechnology – Randy Ogle, ORNL oglerb@ornl.gov

Meth Lab Clean Up – Don Beard, MTSU d.beard@comcast.net

Return on Investment – Mike Palmer, PSC Safety Inc. MPalmer@psc-safety.com

Video Exposure Monitoring Overlay – Gary Shrum, Eastman Chemical Company glshrum@eastman.com

Fall Conference, Friday, October 14 .5 CM Point*

Control Banding – Don Westbrook, Eastman Chemical Company dwestbrook@eastman.com

AIHA Update – Don Hart, AIHA donald.j.hart@comcast.net

Environmental Risk Mgt. in Real Estate Transactions – Dana Ripley, S&ME, Inc. dripley@smeinc.com

Flura Response & Cleanup – George Mick, Richland County, SC GeorgeMick@Richlandonline.com

TOSHA Update – John Winkler, State of Tennessee john.winkler@state.tn.us

CM Point Approval Number is 05-2700. Documentation is posted on the TVS-AIHA website under Certification Maintenance Points, 2005 Fall Conference.

For more information on individual presentations, contact presenters at their e-mail addresses.